ITINERARY

Day 1: Arrive Guilin

Meals: None

Make your way to Guilin airport or railway station. Upon arrival, you will be met by your local guide, and transferred to your hotel.

Today, visit the Reed Flute Cave to see the colourful stalagmites and stalactites.

Destination Information

Guilin - Guilin was founded during the reign of the first Chinese empire, the Qin Dynasty. It is renowned for the unique beauty of the mountains that fringe it.

Reed Flute Cave - Named so because of the clumps of slender reed once commonly found at the entrance to the caves which was also used to make flutes, the Reed Flute Caves house a grotto of multi-coloured stalactites and stalagmites.

Day 2: Cruise the Li River

Meals: B, L

Take a gentle cruise along the Li River to reach the quaint town of Yangshuo. Around every river bend is a view that will take your breath away as jagged karst peaks loom over rural scenes of lush greenery, grazing buffalo and local fisherman.

Spend the afternoon at leisure and explore this idyllic wonderland and get an insight into life here.

Destination Information

Li River Cruise - Pass tranquil farming and fishing scenes and picturesque villages as you cruise down the Li River. The main attraction is the stunning limestone karsts that tower above the river creating a magical landscape of mountains and water. The unique and natural beauty of this region has for centuries been an inspiration to Chinese artists and poets alike.

Day 3: Yangshuo

Meals: B

Yangshuo sits in an exquisite rural location surrounded by landscapes of emerald-green paddy fields surrounded by dramatic limestone karsts.

Spend the morning exploring the countryside and enjoy the afternoon at leisure.

Destination Information

Yangshuo - Yangshuo is home to some of the best scenery in the world. This quaint town is renowned for its breathtaking vistas and peaceful country life. Surrounded by stark karst peaks and attractively located on the Li River, Yangshuo, alongside Guilin, prides itself in being the most sought-after beauty spots in China.

Day 4: Depart Guilin
